

Accessibility Statement for StoryWorth

At StoryWorth Inc., we are committed to accessibility, diversity and inclusion. We believe all of our users, including those with disabilities, should be able to use our service. Whether you're using assistive technologies like a screen reader, a magnifier, and/or voice recognition software or switch technology, our goal is the same: Provide a smooth experience for all customers!

We have recently updated our website in order to ensure greater accessibility. If you are having difficulty with your browsing experience, please contact us at hello@storyworth.com and we will happily assist you.
